Aims and Scope

JCPCP is a peer-reviewed journal which values personal experience above professional boundaries and doctrinal jargon. It provides a forum for ideas, experience and views of people working in the psychological world and those who use psychotherapy or receive psychiatric services. The journal encourages a critical, reflexive view of psychology and counselling and is a constant challenge to orthodoxy. Our contributors reflect on their work and experiences in therapy, in relationships and in institutions. The journal embraces philosophical, radical and scientific perspectives in its analysis of psychological, psychiatric and psychotherapeutic systems. With a following wind, it will sometimes make you laugh out loud.

Contributions

Critiques, in the form of short articles and letters on any aspect of psychological or psychotherapeutic theory or practice, are always welcome. They will be peer reviewed. Articles should not normally exceed 4,000 words. Brief author details, key words and a short abstract should be included. All submissions should be in Microsoft Word format. Full guidelines are available from the Editor directly or via the website. All previous contributors can be contacted through the editor, Craig Newnes. Please submit all material to the editor directly via email (craignewnes76@gmail.com).

Disclaimer

Statements and opinions expressed in the articles and communications are those of the individual contributors and not the statements and opinions of the editor or Egalitarian Publishing Ltd. Egalitarian Publishing Ltd expressly disclaims any implied warranties of merchant-ability or fitness for a particular purpose. If expert assistance is required, the services of a competent professional, or a good friend, should be sought.
