

Shedding Light on transparent collaboration in healthcare: a unique overview of practices in Europe

Wednesday, 23rd January 2019
European Parliament, Room A1E-1
10:00 - 12:30

This event is kindly hosted by MEP Nessa Childers (S&D)

10:00 Welcome from host Nessa Childers MEP

10:10 Opening – Claudia Marinetti, MHE Director

10:15 Setting the scene

- Transparency and the right to mental health – Prof. Dainius Puras, UN Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health
- Conflicts of interest in medical practice and how it may harm patients – Prof. Klaus Lieb, Psychiatrist, Mainz University Medical Center
- Why transparency in healthcare matters to users and patients – Peter Lehmann, European Network of (Ex)Users and Survivors of Psychiatry

11:00 Presentation of the Shedding Light report and recommendations for increased transparency

- Marcin Rodzinka, Shedding Light Project Coordinator, Mental Health Europe

11:10 Transparency and patients' interest: Looking at the Belgian example

- Bart Vermeulen, Deputy Director Healthcare, Office of the Minister of Social Affairs and Public Health

11:25 Panel debate and discussion: “Identifying needs and seeking agreement. How to ensure greater transparency across Europe?”

- Annabel Seeböhm, Secretary General, Standing Committee of European Doctors
- Ancel.la Santos Quintano, Senior Policy Advisor, Health Action International
- Julie Bonhomme, Director Legal Affairs & Compliance, European Federation of the Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations
- Lina Mosch, Health Policy Director, European Medical Students Association
- Peter Lehmann, European Network of (Ex)Users and Survivors of Psychiatry

Moderator: Bob Grove (Senior Policy Advisor, MHE)

12:10 European Commission's reaction to discussion and reflections on recommendations

- Thomas Heynisch, Deputy Head of Unit, DG GROW, European Commission

12:20 Conclusions – End of the event